Teachers with ingenuity can also make their own PPTs and provide them to the students. PPTs prepared during this period could also be used in class room interactions as and when they commence.

We may try and explore the use of technology platforms like Google meet app, Microsoft team, Skype etc, for direct interaction by the teachers with their students from the safety of their homes.

All NCERT e-textbooks for classes VI upwards as prescribed in our schools are available on NCERT.nic.in.
